

Megan Eligio

Graphic • User Experience • User Interface • Illustrator

(808) 650-1057

megan43@hawaii.edu

815A 7th Ave

Honolulu, HI 96816

Hey Hey!

I'm a graphic artist based in Honolulu, Hawai'i who specializes in illustrations and User Experience & Interface design. I'm well-versed in Adobe softwares, Canva, and Figma. I'm committed to ensuring clients reach their desired results, as well as maintaining a foundation built on trust.

In my free time, I like to play cozy video games, read fictional stories, binge-watch anime, and draw in Procreate.

Education

Kapi'olani Community College

Associate of Science

Specialization in Interface Design

2019–2024

University of Hawai'i at West 'Oahu

Bachelor in Creative Media

2024–2026

Work Experience

Intern, Board of Student Publications

2023

- Created different variations of cover designs for the Le'ahi and Ka Hue Anahā Magazines
- Composed layouts to display content cleanly and clearly

Intern, New Media Arts

2022–2023

- Collaborated as a team to develop promotional materials for the 2023 New Media Arts portfolio show. I was tasked with:
 - creating social media posts and banners
 - developed web graphics and assets
 - designing the layout of the website
 - gathering content from students to be featured
 - assisted another intern in capturing headshots of each student and making sure their video interviews were clear
- Created potential custom icon illustrations for the New Media Arts website for Interface Design and Animation

Intern, Waikiki Aquarium

2022

- Produced print collateral; posters, flyers, holiday cards, gift coupons, and signs for maintenances and the gift shop
- Developed precise craftsmanship while producing print deliverables